

A message to John Edwards and those that think just like him... *The War against Terror is not a “Bumper Sticker”

Look at this picture... remember it and never forget it. It is not a Bumper Sticker and should be a constant reminder that the terror threat is real.

Know that there is evil in the world and it must be dealt with. Calling the war against terror nothing more than a “Bush Bumper Sticker” is to dismiss the memory of the thousands who died on the morning of 9/11 at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and United Flight 93 in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

Strong and decisive leadership is needed to defeat that threat, not slogans mouthed for political gain.

BERNARD B. KERIK
Police Commissioner
City of New York (Retired)